

HIV Made Me Fabulous

A short film about living and loving as a woman with HIV

"It was like looking at a mirror, seeing my struggles, taking pride in my resilience and encouraging me to see my worth."

-PERSON LIVING WITH HIV

Produced & Directed by Edmond Kilpatrick Written & Narrated by Juno Roche

Executive Producers: Life and Love with HIV, Faculty of Health Sciences, Simon Fraser University

Co-Producers: Dr. Allison Carter and Dr. Angela Kaida | Performers: Jacky Essombe, Quanah Style, Joleen Mitton | Director of Photography: Hannah Dubois | Music: Martin Gotfrit

Project Advisors: Florence Anam, Azra Bhanji, Dr. Lori Brotto, Dr. Mary Kestler, Marvelous Muchenje, Melissa Nelson, Elder Valerie Nicholson, Zoe Osborne, Dr. Sophie Patterson, Nicole Prestley, Dr. Kate Salters, Margarite Sanchez, Kath Webster Funders: Michael Smith Foundation for Health Research, BC Centre of Excellence in HIV/AIDS, Simon Fraser University's Community Engagement Initiative (CEI)

RELEASED DECEMBER 1, 2021

